1. The railroad car manufacturing plant at Krusevac, Yugoslavia, located north of the city and about four kilometers south of the Morava River is expected to begin production of internal combustion motors for tractors, automobiles, and aircraft in 1951.
2. At present an extensive amount of expansion is going on in an easterly direction. The purpose of these new buildings is a carefully guarded secret. It is assumed, however, that they will be used for the production of jet engines.
